Update from Jones Partners, the Receivers of Melissa Caddick and Liquidators of Maliver Pty Ltd

“Following our application as Receivers, we confirm that Orders were made this week by the Federal Court enabling us to sell further items of Receivership Property,” said Bruce Gleeson, Principal at Jones Partners.

“We have appointed Smith & Singer to assist us in selling jewellery, Shapiro to sell designer clothing, luxury goods and artworks and Pickles to sell the general household items,” said Mr Gleeson.

“All auction houses are working towards having the majority of the items in their specialty auctions prior to Christmas 2022.”

“The sale of these items is another significant step in realizing the Receivership Property of Ms Caddick. We are also continuing to make significant progress in advancing other key recoveries, particularly concerning the liquidation of Ms Caddick’s company, Maliver.”
